Numb. 89.10

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday December 12, to Saturday December 16, 1749.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of December, 1749.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS his Majeſty hath received Information, that the many Rules, Orders and Regulations, made from Time to Time by his Majeſty at this Board, for putting a Stop to the Spreading of the contagious Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle, have not produced the good Effects intended, the ſaid Diſtemper having not only ſpread itſelf to moſt Parts of this Kingdom, but doth at this Time rage with a Malignity and Violence very little ſhort of what had appeared at its firſt Breaking out; and that the principal Cauſe of the Continuance of the ſaid Diſtemper, hath been the great Neglect of the Officers appointed to carry his Majeſty's aforementioned Rules and Regulations into due Execution, and particularly the ſuffering Cattle to be bought, ſold, removed, and carried to Fairs and Markets, without the proper Certificates of the Health of the Cattle, as required by the ſaid Rules, and the many Frauds and Impoſitions that have been committed by the Perſons entruſted with the ſaid Certificates, ſo that it is become abſolutely neceſſary, in order to prevent the further ſpreading of the ſaid Contagion, to put the Liberty of buying, ſelling and removing of Horned Cattle under other and ſtronger Rules and Regulations:—And whereas his Majeſty hath this Day taken this Matter into his moſt ſerious Conſideration, and being deſirous of doing every Thing in his Power towards putting a Stop to the ſaid Diſtemper, hath therefore thought proper, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That after the Fourteenth Day of January next, and before the Fourteenth Day of March following, no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, within England, whether fat or lean, ſick or well, be removed from the Grounds, Lands or Places where they ſhall be on the ſaid Fourteenth Day of January, excepting only ſuch ſound and fat Cattle, fit for Slaughter, as ſhall be removed in order to be ſlaughtered at ſome uninfected Place within the Diſtance of two Miles from the Place where they ſhall be on the ſaid Fourteenth Day of January, by Virtue of a Certificate to be granted by ſome duly qualified Juſtice of Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax under his Hand and Seal, expreſſing the Deſcription and Soundneſs of ſuch Cattle, the Place from and to which they are to be removed; and which Certificates ſhall not be granted but on full Enquiry into, and full Satisfaction had by ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, or Commiſſioner of the Land Tax, on Oath of the Soundneſs of ſuch Cattle.

And it is hereby further ordered, That the Church-Wardens, Overſeers of the Poor, Conſtables, and ſuch other Perſon or Perſons as have been, or ſhall be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace, in Purſuance of any Order made by his Majeſty in Council, do ſtop any ſuch Cattle which ſhall be driven contrary to this Order, or to any of the Acts of Parliament made in Relation to the diſtempered Cattle, and carry the Offender or Offenders before ſome Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, to be puniſhed according to the aforeſaid Acts.

Provided, and it is declared, that this Order is not intended to prohibit the Carriage of Carcaſſes of any Cattle not infected, without their Hides, to ſuch Places, and in ſuch Manner, as the reſpective Owners thereof ſhall think fit; nor to prohibit the Removal of ſuch Cattle, as ſhall be in Want of Paſture, into other Grounds belonging to or in Poſſeſſion of the Owner of ſuch Cattle, not above the Diſtance of Two Miles

(Price Four-Pence.)

Miles from the Places where the ſame ſhall be on the ſaid Fourteenth Day of January, nor within One Mile of any infected Place.

Provided alſo, that nothing herein contained ſhall extend to prohibit the Removal of any ſuch Cattle, which ſhall be within the Dominion of Wales, from one Part of the ſaid Dominion of Wales to any other Part thereof; nor to prohibit or reſtrain the Removal of any ſuch Cattle which ſhall be in any of Counties of Somerſet, Dorſet, Devon and Cornwall, from one Place to another within the ſaid Counties, but without going into any other than the abovementioned Counties, which are all repreſented to be, not only free from the ſaid Infection, but at a conſiderable Diſtance from the infected Parts of this Kingdom.

And it is hereby further ordered, that ſo much of his Majeſty's Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the driving or removing of any Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers or Heifers, from one Place to another, by Virtue of any Certificate or Certificates, ſhall, from and after the ſaid Fourteenth of January next, until the Fourteenth of March following, be and ſtand ſuſpended, and not put in Execution as to any Caſes happening within the Time aforeſaid.

And for the better Execution of ſo much of his Majeſty's ſaid former Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the killing and burying the diſtempered Cattle, it is hereby further ordered, that during the Continuance of this and the ſaid Order of the 22d of March 1747, the Owners of all Horned Cattle do, as ſoon as the Diſtemper ſhall appear in or among any of the ſaid Cattle, immediately give Notice thereof to the Conſtable of the Town or Pariſh, and alſo to the Church Wardens and Overſeers of the Pariſh or Place where ſuch infected Cattle ſhall be, of the Appearance of ſuch Infection, or to any Inſpector already appointed or to be appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the Diſtrict where ſuch Pariſh or Place ſhall lie.

And his Majeſty doth hereby further order and command, that the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax, do grant the Certificates allowed by this Order gratis; and that they do not ſuffer their Clerks, or other Perſon or Perſons any Ways concerned in iſſuing ſuch Certificates, to ask, demand, receive, or take any Fee, Reward, Gratuity, or Sum of Money whatſoever, under Pretence of making out ſuch Certificates, or for any Act or Thing done in Relation thereto.

And his Majeſty doth hereby ſtrictly charge and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities, Liberties, and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom, and alſo the Commiſſioners of the Land Tax authorized to act herein, to carry this his Majeſty's Order of Council into Execution; as likewiſe all the Rules and Regulations relating to the diſtemper'd Cattle, and alſo to Hides, contained in the aforementioned Order of his Majeſty in Council, dated the 22d of March 1747, ſo far as the ſame are not varied by this preſent Order, and more eſpecially ſuch Parts thereof as relate to the Killing and Burying of any ſuch diſtemper'd Cattle, and the Cleanſing and Purifying the Houſes, Buildings, and Places, where any ſuch infected Cattle ſhall have ſtood, or been killed; and likewiſe to carry into Execution the ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in relation to the ſaid Cattle: And that they do likewiſe cauſe the Penalties, directed by the ſaid Acts, to be inflicted on all Perſons who ſhall diſobey any of the Rules, Orders, and Regulations made by his Majeſty in Council.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majeſty's Pleaſure, that the ſame be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and be alſo inſerted in the next London Gazette, and be likewiſe read in all Pariſh Churches, Chapels, and other Places ſet apart for Divine Worſhip, on the Firſt and every other Sunday after the Publication hereof.

Halifax in Nova Scotia, Oct. 30. The Settlers continue to enjoy perfect Health, and have by their induſtrious Labours ſo far advanced their Works, that 350 comfortable and convenient Houſes are already built, and many more will, in all Probability, be built before the Winter, as the Weather continues warm and fine beyond Expectation; there are ſome few however leſs induſtrious, for whoſe Reception, in caſe their Houſes ſhould not be finiſhed before the cold Weather ſets in, the Governor has retained one of the Tranſport Ships. The Settlement is greatly increaſed by a Number of uſeful and induſtrious Families from New-England and other Places. Some Hundreds of Fiſhing Veſſels have already been here, and many more are expected next Year. The Indians of the Peninſula have committed ſome Hoſtilities, but as their Numbers are only inconſiderable, and as all proper Meaſures have been taken to reduce them to Obedience, by raiſing a Company of Rangers to ſcour the Woods, and ſetting a Reward upon their Heads, there is little Apprehenſion of their being any further troubleſome, more eſpecially as the Town is ſecured by a Palliſado, and the Troops poſted round it. The French Inhabitants have ſent 50 of their People to aſſiſt in the publick Works, and they are employed by the Governor in cutting a Road to Minas.

Paris, Dec. 24, N. S. The Spaniſh Ambaſſador here has notified to this Court the Marriage of the Duke of Savoy with the Infanta of Spain, but the Sardinian Ambaſſador has not yet received Orders from Turin to do it in Form. The Infanta will, it is thought, paſs thro' France by Lyons in her Way to Turin, about Eaſter next. The Prince of Congé was taken ill of the Small-Pox the Day before Yeſterday at Verſailles, but he was immediately brought to Town, and it is ſaid has a favourable Sort.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint James Banks, Gent. to be his Majeſty's Conſul at Carthagena in Spain.

Whitehall, Dec. 8, 1749.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that on the 9th Day of November laſt, about Two of the Clock in the Night-time, a dreadful Fire broke out in the Store-houſe of Paul Rendall, in the Pariſh of Melkſham in the County of Wilts, Tanner; which, in a ſhort Time, conſumed the ſaid Houſe, together with ſeveral other Buildings, and Goods, and Merchandizes, depoſited therein, to the Value of One Hundred and Sixty ſix Pounds, and upwards, excluſive of the ſaid Buildings; And whereas the ſaid Paul Rendall having been very induſtrious in apprehending, and bringing to Juſtice, ſeveral notorious Thieves and Robbers, who lately infeſted the County of Wilts, as well as other Counties, there is good Reaſon to ſuſpect, that ſome of their Confederates and Abettors wilfully and maliciouſly ſet Fire to the ſaid Premiſſes: In order to diſcover discover the Author of so wicked a Crime, his Majesty is most graciously pleased to promise his Pardon, to any Person or Persons, who shall make Discovery of his, her, or their Accomplices in the Fact, excepting the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Buildings. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Person making such Discovery, shall receive of Jacob Selfe of Bradford in the County of Wilts, Esq; Fifteen Guineas, upon Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders.
